No Destination (Fight or Flight)

Hoobastank

I run away
Through the dark and empty space
Where the wind will erase your memory
Here in the black there is no turning back
It's the only place where I can get away
This is where I know I'm safe
The road is my escape
A hiding place from you under the sky
There's nowhere else I'd rather be
The moonlight blankets me
The stars will be my company tonight
The further I run
The more than I've become
Weightless and numb to the hurting
Worries and fears hold no gravity here
It's the only place
It all makes sense to me
This is where I know I'm safe
The road is my escape
A hiding place from you under the sky
There's nowhere else I'd rather be
The moonlight blankets me
The stars will be my company tonight
N dstintin!
I have found the calm
Inside the storm
N dstintin!
I have found the calm
Inside the storm
This is where I know I'm safe
The world is my escape
A hiding place from you under the sky
There's nowhere else I'd rather be
The moonlight blankets me
The stars will be my company tonight
N dstintin!
I have found the calm
Inside the storm
