Shine On

Blitzen Trapper

It ain't no love like a love that's gone
The love's in spite of the loveless kind
A locked up band with an endless shine
I've seen it myself walking through the pinesIt ain't no love like a love that's gone
The love's in spite of the loveless kind
A locked up band with an endless shine
I've seen it myself walking through the pinesThere ain't no love like a love that shines
There ain't no tie like the tie that binds
There ain't no way like a way divine
There ain't no love like a love that shines
Come onThere ain't no pain like a wounded soul
But there ain't no soul can't beam it hope
A love is good when the mood's real slow
There ain't no pain like a wounded soulThere ain't no love like a love that shines
There ain't no tie like the tie that binds
There ain't no way like a way divine
There ain't no love like a love that shines
Come onThere ain't no love like a love that shines
There ain't no tie like the tie that binds
There ain't no way like a way divine
There ain't no love like a love that shinesShine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dry
Shine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dry
Shine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dry
Shine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dryThere ain't no love like a love that shines
There ain't no tie like the tie that binds
There ain't no way like a way divine
There ain't no love like a love that shinesShine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dry
Shine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dry
Shine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dry
Shine On
Baby, don't let your laugh run dryShine on
Shine on
