Embrace (feat. George Maple)

Goldroom

Did you have to leave so soon?
Didn't wanna make you run around
'Cause it seems I've tripped up once again
I'm lying down again
Staring up in to a cloud of questions, why
Blurry visions of tired eyes
Got a lot of things that I need to say
Got a lot of things that I need to
Find a way to rest my head
Just try to clean my eyes
Why'd I let you walk away
Why'd I let you walk away
'Cause I'm thinking it's youI've been thinking 'bout you everyday
I see you walking round my way
So easy to get to your embrace
It's like you never went away
Glow, like you can't escape the rays
You're brave enough to save the day
Love hoping we can make it fade
Come on through to your embraceDid you have to leave so soon?
Didn't wanna make you run around
'Cause it seems I've tripped up once again
Now I'm lying down again
Staring up in to a cloud of questions, why
Blurry visions of tired eyes
Got a lot of things that I need to say
Got a lot of things that I need to
Find a way to rest my head
Just try to clean my eyes
Why'd I let you walk away
Why'd I let you walk away
'Cause I'm thinking it's youI've been thinking 'bout you everyday
I see you walking round my way
So easy get to your embrace
It's like you never went away
Glow, like you can't escape the rays
You're brave enough to save the day
Love hoping we can make it fade
Come on through to your embraceI've been thinking 'bout you everyday

I see you, I can run my way
So easy to get to your embrace
It's like you never went away
Glow, like you can't escape the rays
You're brave enough to save the day
Love hoping we can make it fade
Come on through to your embraceI've been thinking 'bout you everyday
I see you, I can run my way
So easy get to your embrace
It's like you never went away
Glow, like you can't escape the rays
You're brave enough to save the day
Love hoping we can make it fade
Come on through to your embrace
