

How Soon

Sounds Orchestral

Wait a minute, baby, you packin' your bags

How soon?

Now, don't do that, wait a minute

Why don't you stay a while?

How soon?

We can work this out, sit down

Let's talk about itI miss your smiling face

The smell of your perfume

Girl, this damn bed is cold

Nothing to hold on toOh yeah, the phone is cool

But girl I need you here

Be it plane, train or automobile

How soon can you get here?I'm gonna miss you

More than you know

Every time you leave

I wanna beg you not to goWe have so much fun, girl

Don't we though

When you pack your bags to leave

I try not to let my feelings showIt's so hard for me

Especially when you been around

Distant lovers is what we are

And girl it's breakin' me downI miss your smiling face

The smell of your perfume

Girl, this damn bed is cold

Nothing to hold on toOh yeah, the phone is cool

But girl, I need you here

Be it plane, train or automobile

How soon can you get here?And when will I see you?

It's never too soon

Can you come in the morning

And leave later on that afternoon?See, I'm just as scared

Whenever you're away

Girl, I'd give anything

Just to see you everydayIt's so hard for me

Especially after you've been around

Distant lovers are what we are

And girl it's breakin' me downYou're a career girl

You gotta do, what you gotta do

As much as I want you here with me

Girl, I'm so damn proud of youI miss your smiling face

 The smell of your perfume

 Girl, this damn bed is cold

Nothing to hold on toOh yeah, the phone is cool

 But girl, I need you here

 Be it plane, train or automobile

How soon can you get here?I miss your smiling face

 The smell of your perfume

 Girl, this damn bed is cold

Nothing to hold on toOh yeah, the phone is cool

 But girl, I need you here

 Be it plane, train or automobile

How soon can you get here?Get here, get here

 Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

 How soon, ooh, baby?

 Girl, I hate to see you leave

 Can't you see it's killing me?

Be it plane, train or automobile, get hereI miss your smiling face

 The smell of your perfume

 Girl, this damn bed is cold

Nothing to hold on toOh yeah, the phone is cool

 But girl, I need you here

 Be it plane, train or automobile

How soon can you get here?I miss your smiling face

 The smell of your perfume

 Girl, this damn bed is cold

Nothing to hold on toOh yeah, the phone is cool

 But girl, I need you here

 Be it plane, train or automobile

 How soon can you get here?
