The Letter

Hoobastank

Meet me there at midnight, same place we always go
I'm absolutely sure he doesn't know
Those words jump off the letter that I found behind our bed
Haunting me they echo in my head, in my headIt's too late to try and work it out
There's no way to turn this thing around
It's all there in the letter that I've found
I've memorized it line for line
Too bad that letter isn't mine, noWhen can I next see you, I've been counting down the days
I promise you our secret will be safe
No, I just can't continue reading through my tears
The beating of the letter is so clear, so clearIt's too late to try and work it out
There's no way to turn this thing around
It's all there in the letter that I've found
I've memorized it line for line
Too bad that letter isn't mineYou wanted me to find it, never tried to hide it
Running never fades those words are here to stay
I hope you find this letter I'm writing you today
These will be the last words that I sayIt's too late to try and work it out
There's no way to turn this thing around
It's all here in this letter that you've foundIt's too late to try and work it out
There's no way to turn this thing around
It's all here in this letter that you've found
So memorize it line for line
I won't be there to say goodbye
