Low down

Archie Bell and The Drells

[Incomprehensible]You leave me hanging high
Lost my sense to confide
Blanks, confused and empty
Yet overcome with a relieving sighSilence, deafening silence
Wicked world running through your head
Tired of second guessing
What I did or what it was I saidOhh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Anchor my soul no more, low downOn the outside running smooth
Of a gutless cold machine
Although, I saw it coming
This soon, I didn't think I'd seeJust come out and tell me
You ain't gonna break my will
You're water under the bridge now
Lying dormant, dead and stillOhh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Anchor my soul no more, low down[Incomprehensible]My eyes can no longer be blackened
My smile can no longer break
As far as I can throw you
I wouldn't trust you 'cause your so damn fakeLet's get somethin' straight here
Get the fuck outta my way
Forever my stone will be rollin'
No matter what ya do or sayOhh, ohh, ohh, ohh
Anchor my soul no more, low down
