

I've Never Seen...

Rza

[Intro: RZA]

You know they say

In every man's life, there comes a time

When you get struck by the arrow of cupid

By the love of God, or the beauty of a woman

Sometimes this love, brings thunder into your life

And it brings the storm, sing about it[Xavier Naidoo]

There was once a love in this

Love is more than just a kiss

Will we take you to that step

Will we do more than just connect

And will you, bring the thunder in my life

And the fire in my eyes

Cause then there, will be days of pleasure when

Everything far will be so near[Hook: Xavier Naidoo (woman)]

I have never felt thunder (thunder)

And lighting (lightning) like this

I have never been struck by (struck by)

A wonder (a wonder) like this[Xavier Naidoo]

There aren't days where I can, stop talking about you

There aren't days I can't stop, saying your name

And I'm looking for ways in never, to part from you, ha-ha

And everything change and you, still stayed the same[Chorus: x 4]

I've never seen, and there's never been

Anything, with the beauty of you[RZA]

Yo, yo, yo

Aiyo, shorty, I've never met someone so beautiful

From your hair follicle to your finger nail cuticle

Struck by the arrow of cupid, this love is deep rooted

Like someone, took my heart sampled it and looped it

To a song that's endless, passion brings the tempest

I'll slay a thousand dragons to save my little princess

A walking gift from God, you are my shining star

The diamonds and gold that most men be mining for[Xavier Naidoo]

Days that we shared our light treasures

The treasure light fire is to mankind

My hands will try to carry you to heaven

But since I've seen you, you've brought heaven to my mind[Chorus: x 4]
