Unlimited Love

Die Happy

If I was a hero
A superhero
I'd know what to do
If I was a hunter
Fearless hunter
I wouldn't mind to shoot
But I am just a girl
Have no supernatural
Powers to combat you
I should be running running runningI'm strong enough to save the world
Can't get enough
Unlimited love
Not ashamed to say the word
Can't get enough
Of this unlimited loveIf I wasn't lonely
Very lonely
I could resist you
If you were mistaking
It would be easy
Not to miss you
But I am just a girl
Have no supernaturals
Powers to combat you
And even if I could
I would feel misunderstood
Howling at the full moon
I should be running running running
But I'm still here waitingI'm strong enough to save the world
Can't get enough
Unlimited love
Not ashamed to say the word
Can't get enough
Of this unlimited love
