

No More Tears

Anita Baker

We used to laugh
Now all we do is cry
You used to make me happy
Now you don't even try You're hurting me, yeah
You're doing me wrong
I can see it in your eyes
Soon you're gonna be gone And I know I'm gonna miss you
My love I will send with you
'Cause I, I've been down, been down too long
And you, you keep doing me wrong And there'll be no more tears for you
And gonna be no more crying now
And gonna be no more tears for you
See my eyes have run dry and there's no more tears And no more saddened eyes
From crying through the night
I'm gonna gather up, gather up my feelings
And lock them all inside So when you say you're leaving
And you walk out my door
I'll catch a moment, say to myself
You cannot hurt me anymore And I know I should be crying
Instead I'm slowly dying
'Cause all my love has gone
From two hearts so badly torn And there'll be no more tears for you
And gonna be no more crying now
And gonna be no more tears for you
See my eyes have run dry and there's no more tears And I know I'm gonna miss you
But for love I've got me someone else
'Cause I, I've been down, been down too long
And you, you keep doing me wrong And there'll be no more tears for you
And gonna be no more crying now
And gonna be no more tears for you
'Cause I see my eyes have run dry and there's no more tears Ain't nobody crying, oh oh eyes
Dry, my eyes, oh
Lord knows it's gonna be fine
It's gonna be alright after a while
I'm gonna be alright if you would leave Surely won't you try alright, surely won't you
Surely won't you try, baby tonight?
I'm gonna be alright
Lord knows I don't need you no more, baby
I'll make it on my own, on my own

I'm gonna make it now
