Lofticries

Purity Ring

Bring, bring the thunder
And the loud, loud rain
Lead our woes asunder, 'Neath the proud, proud veins
Of traits that bleed the gunmen
Of our pumping earthly hearts
Ween our joys in plunder
Feel our shining teeth
Bet our hold on happiness
Bead weighted test with lofticries
Loftie cries with trembling tighs
Weepy chests, with weepy sighs
Weepy skin with trembling tighs
You must be hovering, over yourself watching us trip on each others sides
Dear brother collect all the liquids off of the floor
Use your oily fingers make a paste let it form
Let it seep through your sockets and earholes,
And into your precious fractured skulls
Let it seep, let it keep you from us
Patienly heal you, patienly unreel you
Bead weighted test with lofticries
Loftie cries with trembling tighs
Weepy chests, with weepy sighs
Weepy skin with trembling tighs
You must be hovering, over yourself watching us trip on each others sides
Dear brother collect all the liquids off of the floor
Use your oily fingers make a paste let it form
Bead weighted test with lofticries
Loftie cries with trembling tighs
Weepy chests, with weepy sighs
Weepy skin with trembling tighs
You must be hovering, over yourself watching us trip on each others sides
