Flow

Transister

I'm always swimming
Against the flow of the tide
Kissing the life into something
That's already diedI've been drowning forever
I'll let go, I'll dive
Into the river and flowYou said that you could hear bells
In the traffic below
I could hear sirens and car engines
Fighting the snowI've been drowning forever
I'll let go, I'll dive
Into the river and flowI've been drowning forever
I'll let go, I'll dive
Into the river and flowFlow, flow, flow
Flow, flow, flow
