Car Full Of Killers

Berner

To many people of died right in front of me, could only do so much there's only one of me. people talkin crazy they must wanna bleed, they must be blind they don't wanna see. exotic smoke & dirty needles & crack pipes, that's wat I seen in the tinderlion last night. murder cases & dope dealers with 2 strikes that'll do anything to start a new life but their old ways haunt em like a bad dream, house full of leather couchs & flat screens. fake smiles from people that really envy you, they don't like you at all but they pretend they do. you see the LVs all through the tennis shoes, u notice everyones eatin except for you. & next to you another man from the wrong side, so strap up cause it's guna be a long ride.

When the beef pops off then we all ride, got a car full of killers & we all high. I look up in the sky & ask God why, wats the meaning of life if we all die. I'm lookin back, God damn it's been a long ride, I put my heart in it I make the song cry. I look up in the sky & ask God why, wats the meaning of life if we all die.

If we all die then why the fuk we livin here, a different year & plenty more have disappeared. I got a car full of killers & we all high & we all got one thing on our minds. good weed & crazy coke & throw aways, nightmares of the shit we did that won't go away. I'm seein shit that makes me ask God why, he had to be at the wrong place at the wrong time. no sun where I'm from it's always overcast. wats the meaning of life, I no it's more than cash. broken glass from gun shots, a murder scene. I got the call, he said it's an emergency, now I'm racin at the house, wheres my pistol at. they killed the homie & nows it's time to get em back. gods telln me no & I can't lie, id rather stay home but I gotta ride.

When the beef pops off then we all ride, got a car full of killers & we all high. I look up in the sky & ask God why, wats the meaning of life if we all die. I'm lookin back, God damn it's been a long ride, I put my heart in it I make the song cry. I look up in the sky & ask God why, wats the meaning of life if we all die.

The 29th & he stressin over rent checks, he ain't got it, he sick of bein in debt. it's on sight with a couple more people now so he leaves the house with the desert eagle now. changed man & there ain't no turnin back. he seen them lights turn off, that's the murder van. ran as fast as he could, it wasn't fast enough. they took him out of the game bcuz theyve had enough. back & fourth & I'm askn if ever ends. I keep losin friends, I had to move again. 3rd house same city shits gettn old, 20 p's of that kush can I get em sold. 20 g's on his head & he doesnt no, will we keep him alive or does he have to go. I don't no wen it pops then we all ride, I got a car full of killers & we all high.

When the beef pops off then we all ride, got a car full of killers & we all high. I look up in the sky & ask God why, wats the meaning of life if we all die. I'm lookin back, God damn it's been a long ride, I put my heart in it I make the song cry. I look up in the sky & ask God why, wats the meaning of life if we all die.
