

Someday Soon

Angela Ammons

You wiped away my tears
And asked me for a smile
I pretended to for a while
I said I'd do anything
To always be with you
You promised me someday soon[Chorus:]
But it could never be too soon
And I, I always feel you near me
Tell me you can hear me
'Cause baby I still hear you...ohhhAnd I know that nothing lasts forever
And baby, I will never, ever leave this feeling
Of loving youWhen I hear your voice
I swear, I hear you breathe
Your body next to mine holding meAnd just when I believed
It never has to end
Good bye will never come again
Ohhhh, but it always comes again[Chorus:]And I know that nothing lasts forever
And baby I will never, ever leave this feeling
Of loving youBaby I have faith that someday destiny will take its place
If I could just hold on, to someday soonBut it could never be too soon
And I, I always feel you near me
Tell me you can hear me
Cause baby I still hear you...ohhhAnd I know that nothing lasts forever
And baby I will never, ever leave this feeling
Of loving you
