Seconds

Sanctity

Your life is ending seconds at a time
You pay no mind to what's behind
What did you think would happen now
This angry momentCry, cry, cry
Your life is ending seconds at a time
Can't wait to see what seconds will defineAnd now you're stuck, you stupid FUCK!
Don't even try to find escape
This constant grievingDie, die, die
Your life is ending seconds at a time
Can't wait to see what seconds will define
Your life is endingGreat blinding pain
Coursing through my veins
I'm broken down insideYour battered cage, you need to vent frustration
Your numbered days, your life is your destruction
I'm destroying all you've got
We'll take you down like it or notYour life is ending seconds at a time
Can't wait to see what seconds will define
