Tear My Life Apart

MAKUTA

TEAR MY LIFE APART

Verse
I heard you calling in the pouring rain/
With no direction, or where or why you came/
All that I know is that I'll never be sane/
Lovin' someone like you/

Chorus
Made me lose my mind, and I covered my ears/
To the warnings and the pleadings of those I held dear/
And to make things worse/
You knew from the start/
You'd be the one to/
To tear my life apart/

Verse
I've got a fever that won't ever stop, won't ever quit/
And an alibi, that may or may not exist/
Everyone tells me that I won't be okay/
Lovin' someone like you/

Chorus
Made me lose my mind, and I covered my ears/
To the warnings and the pleadings of those I held dear/
And to make things worse/
You knew from the start/
You'd be the one to/
To tear my life apart/

Bridge
Let me go/
Let me go/
Let go/

Chorus
Made me lose my mind, and I covered my ears/
To the warnings and the pleadings of those I held dear/
And to make things worse/

You knew from the start/
You'd be the one to/
Make me lose my mind, and cover up my ears/
To the warnings and the pleadings of those I held dear/
And to make things worse/
You knew from the start/
You'd be the one to/
Tear my life apart/

Tear my life apart/
Tear my life apart/
Tear my life apart/
Tear my life apart/
