Wait For Me

Shiny Toy Guns

It's like everything turned into a dream
A dream without an end
I can't remember what happened
I just remember you
And how you made me laugh out loud
When you decided to go,
I wish I could've gone with you
I don't like it here anymore
And I don't like being alone
And when I cry, who's going to make it okay?
And when I fall, who's going to carry me?
Tell me, what are we gonna do?
Tell me, what are we gonna do now?
WHYYYYYYY?!
Take me now, and climb to fly
To a higher place where love won't die
We've got something to say without a sound
Tell me what...
Tell me what are we gonna do now?
Lay ourselves under ground
Tell me, what are we gonna do now?
Lay our selves under ground
Tell me, what's happening to me?
I know something is killing you
Take my life, sliding into the blue now
I know something is killing me
Take your life, I am waiting for you
You wait for me
I'm alive, cause 'm dying with you

You wait for me
I'm alive, and I'm dying with you.
Break away to emergency
Your taking hearts offline with me
I believe what you say, so say it loud
Tell me what,
Tell me, what are we gonna do now?
Lay ourselves underground
Tell me, what are we gonna do now?

Lay ourselves underground
Now, tell me, what's happening to me?
I know something is killing you
Take my life, I am counting on you now
I know something is killing me
Take your life,
I am waiting for you
You wait for me.
I'm alive because I'm dying with you
You wait for me
I'm alive and I am dying with you
Everything is so beautiful here
Just like you promised
A whole new world begins
With you
A whole new world
But I'm alive, and I am dying with you
You wait for me
I'm alive and I am dying with you
You, wait for me
I'm alive and I am dying with you
