

Fire

Trevor Hall

Well she's a crazy woman
I tell you hair pulling
I can never understand that girl fully
She's a great illusion everyone she foolin'
When she done with you boy
She gonna leave ya bruising

When you think you got it right, yo got it wrong
She eat you up spit you out, feed you to hers, oh lord
But shes so contagious
She my bondage at the same time my liberation yea

That girl is fire fire fire (yeah, yeah)
Everything she touches burns yeah (yeah yeah)
Everything she touches burns yeah (yeah yeah)

Oh my, oh my
We tearing up the empire
We are bound to expire
If she don't take us higher
'Cause shes more complex than the rest of them
You better look closer boy, and guess again
Sweet like a flower but roars like a lion
Queen of the kingdom, you best stop trying
Don't try to fool her 'cause she's fooling you
Before you've begun, game over you lose

That girl is fire fire fire (yeah, yeah)
Everything she touches burns yeah (yeah yeah)
Everything she touches burns yeah (yeah yeah)

A woman is a powerful thing
Create every nation with life we bring
Oh baby, that's why you love me
Design blow your mind, oh my magic just can't be defined
See in this game of life, somebody wins, somebody lose
This rebel never played a fool, I only play by my rules
Love, live and learn
Yo I can take you higher boy a hotta' then a pern? Ya heard

World queen, with Cherine

That girl is fire fire fire (yeah, yeah)
Everything she touches burns yeah (yeah yeah)
Everything she touches burns yeah (yeah yeah)
