

Secrets in the Dark

Allure of Souls

Secrets In The Dark

Turn out the light but keep on talking
Touch my body with your soothing voice
My pillow's soft and so is your skin
I trace your heartbeat in the night

Somebody's walking in the room above us
Outside the moon is full and strong
Come on

Dive in my ocean, hold my dreams
Take me beyond the fantasies
Let's go out there somewhere
And picture you and me together for eternity

Secrets in the dark
Promises not meant to be broken
Secrets in the dark, how you get to me

Our shadows dancing on the wall beside us
I hold you close as I breathe you in
Under the cover of this magical night
Let it all begin, oh yeah

And as you love me one more time
What's mine is yours, what's yours is mine
Revealing ourselves so we can
Picture everything together for eternity

Secrets in the dark
Promises not meant to be broken
Secrets in the dark, how you get to me

Show me yours, I'll show you mine
No more bow and arrows choking on Saint Valentine's

Hush hush

Secrets in the dark

Promises not meant to be broken
Secrets in the dark, how you get to me

Secrets in the dark
Secrets in the dark
Secrets in the dark
Secrets in the dark

Secrets in the dark
Secrets in the dark
