Iamx

You have been left alone
The creature of innocence
You lie for what you're worth
And struggle with your confidence
And when your devil complains
And tears you up to start again
And when you're lying on the stage
And nothing works, just living hurts
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
And so we meet alone
Two players in a puppet show
Don't cry for audience

There's no one that can take you home
And when your devil complains
And tears you up to start again
But when you're lying on the stage
And nothing works, just living hurts
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
