

Dreams, Venom and Tears

Pheromone

Lies - everything is just a lie
I don't believe your cries
I don't believe you
NoClose your eyes
And whisper goodbye
To all of your dreams are unrealBrake my will
I'll brake you
Burn my dreams
I'll burn you
You took my soul to brake through
Oops! You are denied toSee the tears that are crossing my face
Feel the venom is floating in my veins
You took my dreams and you torn it apart
So you cut stone once was my heartHeart...
It was my heart...Out of control
Coming undone
Once that was my Heart...
