

Hold On

Teenage Fanclub

Wake up, I'm alive
One more day, yeah I'm alive
Think of the ones you love and what they want and what they need
Run away from the misery of those who flatter to mislead
Hold on to your life, to your dreams
Don't get lost in their schemes
Just hold on to your dreams
Hold on to your head, to your heart
Never stop what you can't start
Just hold on to your heart
Simple pleasures are what we need
Sinful leisure, it's all we need
I don't hear much fanfare for the common man these days
We got lost in the mirror but the mirror looks both ways
Hold on to your life, to your dreams
Don't get lost in their schemes
Just hold on to your dreams
Hold on to your head, to your heart
Never stop what you can't start
Just hold on to your heart
Hold on to your life, to your dreams
Don't get lost in their schemes
Just hold on to your dreams
Hold on to your head, to your heart
Never stop what you can't start
Just hold on to your heart
Hold on to your life, to your dreams
Don't get lost in their schemes
Just hold on to your dreams
Hold on to your head, to your heart
Never stop what you can't start
Just hold on to your heart
