This Conversation (feat. Bob Tutupoly)

Mocca

Hey boy, did you know?

I lie awake in my dreamy bed

Thinking of you and those crazy times we've hadSometimes I wonder

Whether you're a Jekyll or you're a Hyde

Sometimes you are wise and tell no liesOh, I can't tell

'cause you make me feel so loved and confused

This conversation may never happenHey girl, did you know?

I miss you so though it may not show

Thinking of you and those crazy times we've hadMy dear I have news to tell you

Your silly jokes did brighten me

You cheered me up when I was downOh, I can't tell

'cause you make me feel so loved and confused

This conversation may never happenOh, I can't tell

'cause you make me feel so loved and confused

This conversation may never happen 2xMay never happen 3x
