

Blind Love

B.B. King

People, I was standing at my window
Tears running all down my cheeks
Yes, standing at my window Tears running all down my cheeks
Well, I could see the woman I'm loving Stopping everyone in the world she meets Well, standing on the corner between 35th and Main
Well, standing on the corner, people between 35th and Main
Yeah, that's where a blind man's seen my woman
People, a dumb man called her name He said, "Oh, I'm blind you brought eyesight and made me see"
Oh, I'm blind you brought eyesight and made me see
Yes, and the dumb man asked a question
Woman, who may your good man be? Yes, I'm standing by trembling, people
People, my heart's laying in my hand
I'm standing by trembling, darling With my heart's laying in my hand
Well, I could hear my baby say
"Lord, I ain't got no man"

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>