

St. Lawrence River (Acoustic)

David Usher

Smells on the air, see there it's crushing the final impression
The stains on the paper where words fell like water Unearth all the changes that never did matter
I think it's beginning to freeze here Caught in the rage and the fire of things
All the brightness that burns me
Fumbling through like a child in the dark
When the nakedness comes I am shocked by the color The glorious weight of your skin Comes alive and I never thought we'd make it back so soon
Might be nice but I knew you'd be your own destroyer Comes a time and I always thought I'd make it up to you Here please forgive me, could we escape? All the bitterness
Piled upon bitterness, held in the face of the things That I don't understand, intellectualize over and over This helplessness suits us, funny how quiet has slipped to our corners Worn all our edges away you are watching, breathing
And baiting, wanting and warming, and cautiously waiting
For some simple signal to creep 'cross your conscience Uncover redemption and oh, did I mention? I carried you down to the St. Lawrence River
The banks running dirty, the water's beginning to freeze here Solid by morning and I'll freeze here, winter by morning Comes alive and I never thought you'd get me back so soon Might be nice but it's only if my own destroyer Comes alive and I always knew I'd make it up to you Saw on your face such a curious grin
As I let go your hand, I was desperate to hold you again
But you're sinkin' so deep in the water Outsmarted myself and so easily gave up what I wanted Solid by morning, what I wanted, winter by morning Comes alive and I never thought you'd make it up so soon Might be nice but I always knew you're my destroyer Comes a time and I always thought I'd make it up to you Solid by morning and I'll freeze here, winter by morning
