

Stained Sheets (feat. The Chamberstrings)

Nikki Sudden

I kissed you that morning
'Midst the stains on the sheets
There's so many things we haven't said yet
 We just left them incomplete
 And all the dreams of yesterday
 Are engraved deep in my heart
 Maybe we could stay together forever
At least we could make a start. I kissed you for a lifetime
 Or so it seemed at the moment that we woke
 Too many false lies and temptations
 Had left me without hope
 Now all the dreams I had yesterday
 Have vanished on the breeze
There's nothing that I want in this world no more
 But your love and your dreams.
 I kissed you that morning
 'Midst the stains on the sheets
So many things we haven't had the chance to do yet
 We've left them incomplete
 Now all the thoughts I had yesterday
 Have vanished on the breeze
There's nothing that I want in this world no more
 Just want you to be with me
 Just want you to be with me
 Just want you to be with me
 Just want you to sleep with me
 For eternity
