

You Got Nothing On Me

Mando Diao

Demons, killers
All of your evil
You got nothing on
You got nothing on me
And fascists and warriors
No matter what you'll say
You don't understand
You don't understand me
And you got, you got nothing on
You got nothing on me, yeah
And you got, you got nothing on
You got nothing on me
The police and politics
You're trying so hard to fool me
But you got nothing on
You got nothing on me
Haters trying
To change my style and mind
But you don't understand
You don't understand me
And you got, you got nothing on
You got nothing on me, yeah
You got nothing on
You got nothing on me
Yeah, I'm so tired of being stuck
In this mess and nightmare
Won't you come and take me up
And take me close to the real life?
Girl, I know you understand
I know you understand me, yeah
I'm fed up with this feeling I've got in my head
Give me something to hold on to
When the hell breaks loose
I know you understand
I know you understand me, yeah
They've got nothing on
You they've got nothing on you, yeah, yeah baby
They've got nothing on
You they've got nothing on you
