Prove Me Wrong

Jude Cole

Everyone living in their private worlds
Looking for love
It's a fashionable word, you know love
But can you show love?
Can you show love?Show me now a love so deep
Take my tears away from me
Show me there is honesty
Prove me wrongShow me there is still a prayer
For those who live in despair
Show me, is there someone there
Prove me wrong, prove me wrongEveryone sharing the same sun
Do you realize?
But it's the last thing we haven't figured out
How to capitalize?
Atleast not yetDo we learn from our mistakes?
Is there anyone awake?
Show me you're not on the take
Prove me wrongShow me there's a chance for peace
Take my fears away from me
Show me where there's harmony
Prove me wrong, prove me wrong(Prove me wrong)
Whoa, what's going on?
Does anything matter at all?Show me there is love around
Before life brings this curtain down
Show me what cannot be found
Prove me wrongDo we learn from our mistakes?
Is there anyone awake?
Show me you're not on the take
Prove me wrongShow me there is still a prayer
For those who live in despair
Show me, is there someone there
Prove me wrongProve me wrong
Prove me wrong
Prove me wrongOh, prove me wrong
Prove me wrong
