Emmure

I stand alone, but I will not be broken.

I stand alone,

The truest words I've spoken.

Blood runs thin. I stand proof of this.

Where is my family when I need them?

So alone.

I will make sure I'm never forgotten.

I see clearly, you are my enemy.

[Repeat x2]

I stand alone, but I will not be broken.

I stand alone,

You are my enemy.

And now my dreams are slowly escaping me.

I don't need anyone. I don't need you.

I'm okay with dying alone. Dig my grave.

I hope you feel the same.

Bide by time,

I'm gonna die, you're gonna die.

No one cares.

Let them take me now.

I'm already dead.

All I want is power and control.

My cold soul.
