

Black Satellite

Tenpenny Joke

It's alright at night
The old man is high on life
I arrive the same way, now I'll decide scene set to get back all the things we left behind
Step back, step back, I'm coming inside
Alright, alright
Not here to start a fight
Are you receiving me?
Black satellite
Gonna watch me fall tonight
Are you deceiving me? Ever strong, gonna get back home
Gonna help disarm with the arms of the middleman
I'm sure when I go into battle I'll find all the ammo then bombs away
Back in the heat it's a little hard finding a way to settle all the debts now
I'm finding keys to survival if I'm gonna get my head away
Alright, alright
Not here to start a fight
Are you receiving me?
Black satellite
Gonna watch me fall tonight
Are you deceiving me? Back in, I'm in the middle now
Trapped in I can see that we're all in this together
Seeing so clear now
But I can't see you, can you forget?
Come back, realise your life isn't like this always
Alright, alright
Not here to start a fight
Are you receiving me?
Black satellite
Gonna watch me fall tonight
Are you deceiving me? I can't trust your sight
About time I started to rise
Fighting for life
Alright, alright
Not here to start a fight
Are you deceiving me?
