

Morning Comes (Acoustic) [Bonus Track]

Delta Rae

Oh, oh. I found a good woman, I found a job that pays.
The tide comes in, I watch it all wash away.
But I'm keeping it steady, that's just how I was raised
Head held up, walking tall into each broken waveAnd this heart grows tired
I found a good woman
I found a job that pays
The tide comes in, I watch it all wash away
But Im keeping it steady, thats just how I was raised
Head held up walking tall into each breaking waveCause the devils in the details and hes taking his toll
Sending good men down the foot trails of some lost lonely soulsAnd I say oh, oh
Rain dont change the sun
Jealous is the night when the morning comes
But it always comesSo Im working the graveyard, I dont sleep till its light
Aint calling in favors, I cant swallow my pride
And the banks on a mission, they want to read me my rights
But they ever show up around here, theyre going to be in for a fightCause the devils in my hometown and I aint telling him no
Cause its my family, its my love now, that Im scared to let goAnd I say oh, oh
Rain dont change the sun
Jealous is the night when the morning comes
But it always comesFollowed the track of my needle
Tried to be good to my people
So whys there no peace?
No break no reliefCan I be blamed if Im angry?
Can I be saved if Im barely clinging to hope?
Im clinging to hopeWhen I say oh, oh
Rain dont change the sun
Jealous is the night when the morning comes
But it always comesIt always rains down on us
And like an old dog lying by a new gravestone
Its still our home
Its still our homeSo if you ever feel like you are alone
After the night
The morning comes
