

More Than Yesterday

Edwin Bruce

YEAH, yeah

You feel the grass is always greener

And the tears I left behind

To know I can take my freedom

And my heart isn't next to line

With you the sun is always rising

When im with you it's never dark

With you the grounds are free from raining

With you my life doesn't fall apart

Yeah

I miss you more than ever

More than I can put to words

Every day is getting harder

to leave it all behind.

I am missing you, more than yesterday, I am missing you.

We'll live a life filled with melodies

Now the stories is my defriend

When we fly free from promises

I try to smile but I cant pretend, no

I miss you more than ever

More than I can put to words

Every day is getting harder

To leave it all behind.

I am missing you, more than yesterday,

I am missing you, more than yesterday, yesterday, yesterday.

More than yesterday, yesterday, yesterday.

The sun is not getting lighter than yesterday

As I ever get further from yesterday

Can see the echo is closer, than yesterday

As I ever get further from yesterday

Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday

More than yesterday

I miss you more than ever

More than I can put to words

Every day is getting harder

To leave it all behind.

I am missing you, more than yesterday,

I am missing you, more than yesterday (yesterday)
Yesterday (yesterday)
Yesterday.
More than yesterday (yesterday)
Yesterday (yesterday), yesterday
