

Burning

Kora

One day when I get my act right
I will choose to let goSome day when I get my facts right
I will choose to let you knowCome play when I get my tracks tight
Jump into the next flowSome say I should get my stats right
I will choose not to showYeahI've been burning, burning, burning
All these bad ways I've been learningI've been earning, earning, earning
Oh how the tide's been turning
I've been burning, burning, burning
All these bad ways I've been learningI've been earning, earning, earning
Oh how the tide's been turningAyeGive me an inch and I'll make it a mile
Spend well his coin on a crooked smile
Show me the way
If you leave I shall live to fight another day
Why would we play these games this way?I've been burning, burning, burning
All these bad ways I've been learningI've been earning, earning, earning
Oh how the tide's been turningI've been burning, burning, burning
All these bad ways I've been learning
I've been earning, earning, earning
Oh how the tide's been turningAyeYeah
