IAMX

You have been left alone
The creature of innocence
You lie for what you're worth
And struggle with your confidenceAnd when your devil complains
And tears you up to start again
And when you're lying on the stage
And nothing works, just living hurtsForget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotionAnd so we meet alone
Two players in a puppet show
Don't cry for audience
There's no one that can take you homeAnd when your devil complains
And tears you up to start again
But when you're lying on the stage
And nothing works, just living hurtsForget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotionForget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
