

S.H.E.

IAMX

You have been left alone
The creature of innocence
You lie for what you're worth
And struggle with your confidence And when your devil complains
And tears you up to start again
And when you're lying on the stage
And nothing works, just living hurts Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion And so we meet alone
Two players in a puppet show
Don't cry for audience
There's no one that can take you home And when your devil complains
And tears you up to start again
But when you're lying on the stage
And nothing works, just living hurts Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
Forget, forget
With the secret harmonic emotion
