

From Heaven

Terrateya

The image shows no way back
Dont know what your eyes can see
If I had you close to me
Its okay no need to regretIve been down that road before
Desire flows easily
And just like it used to be
Its okay cause little has changedDo you still dream of what weve lost
When we descend from heaven
The worst of me your eyes wont see
Until eternitys doneOur thoughts were free when we were young
But in this world we fell apart
Until the last word from my lips
Will finally stay in your heartAll the chances we missed
No wrong time we didnt meet
As slow as our hearts now beat
Its okay no need for blameSo I stay here and wait
I know that you are somewhere
Cant blame you, I know you care
Its okay but life is too longDo you still dream of what weve lost
When we descend from heaven
The worst of me your eyes wont see
Until eternitys doneOur thoughts were free when we were young
But in this world we fell apart
Until the last word from my lips
Will finally stay in your heartNow I head for the east where the sun climbs the sky
Raise my arms, breathe the light, I wont run, I can fly
As dusk falls in the west, darkness shrouded in threats
For what was and what is, its as bad as it getsDo you still dream of what weve lost
When we descend from heaven
The worst of me your eyes wont see
Until eternitys doneOur thoughts were free when we were young
But in this world we fell apart
Until the last word from my lips
Will finally stay in your heart
