Magnolia

Name Taken

Quit surrounding me
i'm already down and gone locked defeat
got your eyes pealed
the only thing holding me are why won't you quit dragging me aroundwe can tell by now that there's no such thing as love and i can't do anything to forget all that you arehow, long must i wait oh, to break
and you know it'll be easier to snap and if by now but you wont let me gowe can tell by now
and i can't do anything to forget all that you areand as you see i'm too real
