

Making It Back

Richmond Fontaine

3 am and the bottles are lined up in rows on the floor again
'Summer in Siam' plays on repeat again we never get sick of it
Now that I'm home again
In the kitchen with you The lights are all covered and dim and there's nothing but a gentle ease here

'Summer in Siam' plays and you and me and our whole place, we're okay
Now that I'm in your arms again
