

Ghost

Regurgitator

I saw a ghost beside my bed
She said to me she wasn't dead
She wore a ribbon in her hair
She smiled and vanished in the air
Is she real or am I going crazy?
Is she real or am I going crazy?
I couldn't sleep, lay still and thought
About her eyes and smile I adored
She had a way I'd never seen
I fell in love, you won't believe
Is she real or am I going crazy?
Is she real or am I going crazy?
In the morning when I woke
There was no surprise just sun and more
But what is that there I see?
A ribbon on the floor for me
Is she real or am I going crazy?
Is she real or am I going crazy?
