Tits

Brent Lee

I Spent 5000 Dollars to get those puppies done
Little did I know sheâ€™d be showing everyone
Now theyâ€™re all coping feels to see if theyâ€™re not real
Oh whyâ€™d I have to go and buy them tits

Chorus
Oh tits, (tits) Great big tits, (really big tits)
Oh whyâ€™d I have to go and buy them tits

Being from the country we donâ€™t see the city much
So I thought weâ€™d go downtown to catch a flick
I said look at all the yuppies she thought I said unleash them puppies
And sure enough, out cam those tits

Chorus

I went out to the night club and much to my surprise
She was at the bar surrounded by all kinds of guys
They were doing shooters between those great big hooters
At least someone got some use out of those tits

Chorus

So I had to think of something!

I thought that weâ€™d go camping with some of our good friends
Cause I thought this tit flashing was never gonna end
And I thought that it was safe cause it was early in the morning
But sure enough it happened, without even a warning!

We were having breakfast, bacon eggs and grits
Someone said pass the sausages, she thought they said release the hostages
And out came those tits

Chorus

Well she has what she wanted and she left a goodbye note
And I was beggin on my hands and knees
Just as she was leaving she turned back and looked at me

And she said honey, thanks for the mammaries

Chours (+ coulda bought a car!)
