

I Wish You

Steve Ivey (Holiday)

The day I was born, I knew a lot of things.
But now that I'm grown, I'm just remembering, where I have been.
Might o? (__?) we met before,
suddenly somethin? just led you back to my door.
Lookin? to settle the score.
But no more.
Deceive me, hurt and mislead me,
All that I wish you is love.
Confuse me, damage and use me,
All that I wish you is love.
Believe me it's hard, to turn the other cheek.
Faithful and kind, might be confused for weak.
An innocent streak.
Learnin? a lot from you,
Makin? me stronger each time you think I've been beat.
Whatever you scatter , you reap.
But doubt(?)me,

Defeat me, shame and mistreat me.
All that I wish you is love.
Despise me, lie, criticize me,
All that I wish you is love.
Then I forget, but I forgive you, it happens again,
The way that I grew, I owe it to you.
I have you to thank.
Deceive me, hurt and mislead me.
All that I wish you is love.
Confuse me, damage and use me.
All that I wish you is love.
Defeat me, shame and mistreat me.
All that I wish you is love.
Despise me, lie, criticize me.
All that I wish you is love.
All that I wish you is love.
