

Charleroi

William Fitzsimmons

Summer was all we had
Wish that we'd been older
In my weaker times
You're still on my shoulderMy one time love
My injured blood
My songless bird
My sweet interred
I will never knowDresser where I found
Papers of my father
Charleroi my home
She was my first mother
I still look for light
This did not destroy me
I was given love
You can now rest sweetly
