

Alone

Ray Wilson

Autumn leaves are falling down again
Last year seems like yesterday
What to do now that those days have gone
I have to start again
Inspiration means so hard to find
Words already on the page
I just have to write it down
In my own way
Say something worth saying
Time comes and goes
A life unnoticed
Cry out loud
Don't let me away
From this dream
I won't be a friend in need
No one escapes
From this feelingI tell myself hold on
Everything is right
Not wrong
Love is what I ask for
Tonight
Hold on to me
I can't breath
Why am I
Alone
Blaming the dawn
Blame me
I know all the lies disagree
You can't just escape
From the leavingNo no
