

Dark Wings (live)

Within Temptation

Why was I one of the chosen ones
Until the fight I could not see
The magic and the strength of my power
It was beyond my wildest dreams Dark wings they are descending
See shadows gathering around
One by one they are falling
Every time they try to strike us down Don't you die on me
You haven't made your peace
Live life, breathe, breathe
Don't you die on me
You haven't made your peace
Live life, breathe, breathe Dark wings they are descending
See shadows gathering around
One by one they are falling
Every time they try to strike us down (Ah...) As they took your soul away
The night turned into the day
Blinded by your rays of life
Gave us the strength we needed Dark wings they are descending
See shadows gathering around
One by one they are falling
Every time they try to strike us down
Dark wings they are descending
See shadows gathering around
One by one they are falling
Every time they try to strike us down
