Baby Boy, Baby Girl

Anthony Hamilton

Hook
Give it up for my lil? baby girl, she the only one in my world.
She?s the only one who really loves me, I can tell when she comes and hugs me..
Give up for my lil? baby boy, the only one that brings me joy,
Me and him ride like were best friends, Me & my lil? man till the end
1st Verse
It was so crazy what I came through, the headaches and drama were not cool,
I always thought, that having a baby would change everything yeah.
Don?t know why I was in and out of courtrooms, cause I was more than responsible I came through.
If I had to rewind it?all I would not change anything?

Some people care bout? things they own, more than there kids who have no clothes, some lie and cheat and some are true, just ask yourself which one are you.
2nd Verse
My baby loves me unconditional, but the love from a stranger has come and gone?
Gotta do what?s right, make sure that they come first over everything yeah?
How do you look in a kids eyes, they look just like you but you still deny?
You?re gonna regret it, missing the first breath, first steps, you can?t get em? back
If I was low, if I couldn?t cope, If I was broke, yeah?
You?d be right there beside me helping me up you would not deny me?
If I was low, if I couldn?t cope, If I was broke, yeah?
You?d be the one to build me up when I?m giving up..
My baby?.
