I Defy

Machine Head

Be my one, would you take my son?
Would you tell someone
Whether we had fun?
With you heroes, double zeros
Runnin' circles 'round you fear
Then never ever falling againWould you take my grace
Look into my face?
With your limp handshake
And your smile that's fake
Would you back my fight
Say your down for life?
Well it's easy to say
When your words don't mean nothingAnger makes me long for a better way
You'll fear my strength if I'm backed into a cage
Because I, I defy, I defy, I defy, I defySee my fate, underestimate
I intoxicate while you emulate
With the losers and users
Suckin' up to the abusers
And I'm never ever falling againFor the tricks you play
Or the fronts you claim
And you just can't fake
The respect I've made
You're a parasite
You conform on site
You're the link in the chain
That was weak and always will beAnger makes me long for a better way
You'll fear my strength if I'm backed into a cage
Because I, I defy, I defy, I defy, I defy
So burn it apart sonI'll give it away, I'll see
Why didn't you end the pain
I'll give it away, I'll see
Why didn't you end the pain
I'll give it away, I'll see
Why didn't you end the pain
I'll give it away, I'll see
Why didn't you end the painI can't take this, I can't fake this
I will break this, I will make this'Cause I defy, I defy, I defy, I defy
I defy, I defy, I defy, I defy
