From The Heart

Hoobastank

There was a time when our dreams felt so real
Just out of reach but not to far to feel
Together we finally make them come true
Cause anything's possible when I was with you
But they kept on saying we'd never amount to anything[Chorus]
All of the dreams we built up from the ground
They never believed them
They just tore them down
We will rebuild them from the start
We will rebuild them from the heartCause once we all wanted seemed so far away
But with every step it was closer each day
The more we tried it was within our grasp
The more that they told us that it wouldn't last and everyone said we were crazy for giving up everything[Chorus: x3]
