

The Things You Do

Jully Black

(If heaven was a mile away)
Would I pack up my bags
And leave this world behind?
(If heaven was a mile away)
Or save it all for you?(If heaven was a mile away)
Would I, fill the tank up with gas
And be out the front door in a flash?Before reconsidering this hell with you
It ain't you, it's the things you do
It's tearing my heart in two
I would've fell with youTo hell with you
(What's wrong with you?)
To hell with you
(What's wrong with you?)
To hell with youI mean it, you seen it, I'm tired of holding it in
Oh, and though it's been years
Since the anger's been building up
But you took care of me and the kids
So, why do I give a fuck?Oh, with heaven I could [Incomprehensible]
To show you just how much I care
Lord, but I'd be happy there'Cause it's hell with you
It ain't you, it's the things you do
It's tearing my heart in two
It's time you loseTo hell with you
To hell with you
To hell with you
(What's wrong with you?)To hell with you
But I fell with you
(What's wrong with you?)To hell with you
(What's wrong with you?)
To hell with you
To hell with you
(What's wrong with you?)Heaven
(If heaven was a mile away)
Heaven, if I care for you
(If heaven was a mile away)When I pack up my bags
And leave this world behind me
(If heaven was a mile away)
If there's nothing left to do, do
(If heaven was a mile away)

But my heart said it's true Before reconsidering this hell with you

It ain't you, it's the things you do

It's tearing my heart in two

I fell for you To hell with you

To hell with you

To hell with you

To hell with you To hell with you

To hell with you

To hell with you

To hell with you

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>