Thanks a MillionÂ

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Thanks a million, a million thanks to you
For everything that love could bring you brought me
Each tender love-word you happened to say
Is hidden away
In memory's bouquet
Thanks a million for I remember too
The tenderness that your caresses taught me
You made a million dreams come true and so I'm saying
Thanks a million to youThanks a million, a million thanks to you
For every thing that love could bring you brought me
Each tender love-word you happened to say
Is hidden away
In memory's bouquet
Thanks a million for I remember too
The tenderness that your caresses taught me
You made a million dreams come true and so I'm saying
Thanks a million to you
