Exile

Tristania

I'm light years away
You can't change me
I'm passive and cold
Just waiting
I've seen the future's threatening sky through dreams at night
I've seen the dogs of war let loose I've seen the blood-red skyNight
A promise of rain
Divided we stand
A distance I can't take anymoreIn the cage in the corner
I'm safe from the beast
Once you wanted me, the image of me
I've played that game a million times and see the signs
I've played that game from A to Z I've lost a million timesNight
A promise of rain
Divided we stand
A distance I can't take anymore
Wounds are open again
Divided we fall
I'm bleeding from the dark of my soulBurning in water
Drowning in fire
Burning in the water
Drowing in fireNight
A promise of rain
Divided we stand
A distance I can't take anymore
Wounds are open again
Divided we fall
I'm bleeding from the dark of my soul
