

Inside what's within behind

Meshuggah

i can't run away from this thing in me i'm weakening down another now developing within i can feel it it's inside my head connected to my brain this other me is slowly taking over deep beneath the eye that all can see energetic visions of the one i know myself to be look into my eyes don't listen to their lies how can i stop this from being real no my life will be no longer what it always used to be life neglected infected by strain i fall into the smothering the even flow of ravaging pain this my temple of self-caged contempt a body slowly pierced by inevitable me do i differ from yourself am i like they say the truth eventually i'm the one you wanna be can you feel the same as i another inside pushing to free itself from the chains of the soul turn your eyes toward the inside dig deep within i'm sure you'll find a different self a different soul to put you in peace with mind
